

Hope

To hope in the Lord is to rest in his arms with faithful assurance of Knowing
He alone is the answer to the trials, fears, burdens, and pains of this life.

To hope in the Lord is to wait in worship with holy awe at His amazing beauty, being aware of only His presence in the midst of my present.

To hope in the Lord is to bow in admiration of the majestic gift which His grace provides.

To hope in the Lord is to acknowledge His sovereignty, supreme and complete, obedience of my will surrendered freely.

To hope in the Lord is my full reward~

He is my portion and my cup is full and running over... with Hope.

~ May the God of your hope so fill you with all joy and peace in believing that by the power of the Holy Spirit you may abound and be overflowing with Hope. ~ Romans 15:13
