

Joy

Love

Hope

Today I will choose to Rejoice in God's Remembrance by journaling a Joy, a Hope, and a Love.

Meditate on His promise of remembrance today by weaving it into the fabric of your soul.

"Behold, I have indelibly imprinted a picture of you on the palm of each of my hand; your walls are continually before Me."
~ Isaiah 49:16 Amp.

Write down (at least) one of each:

℞ A Joy:

℞ A Hope:

℞ A Love:

℞ Memorize Isaiah 49:16

Write out your prayer of hope, joy, and love to the One who hold your heart in the palm of His hands. Then prepare give Thanks for the remembrance.

When you are remembered by God then you have no reason to fear.

In knowing that we are treasured by the Holy One, our value is raised above any earthly measure.
