God Rescues us in our Barren Places

Lesson Day (Saturday): Read the Blog Post for that week that teaches the concept we are learning and the tool we are learning to use. Read through the entire chapter of Isaiah 54 , then focus on reading, copying, meditating and memorizing the verse for that week. During your journal time, add any additional scriptures that have encouraged you or deepened your study.

Try to devote 5 days a week to the study. Don't worry if you fall behind or you miss a day, all the materials will be available on Journeys In Grace in the download section.

Add any comments, scriptures and thoughts to the comments section of the post, The Soli Deo Gloria Sisterhood FB page, or the Journeys In Grace FB page.

Read the Word

Isaiah 54:1 (amp) – Sing, O barren one, you who did not break forth into singing and cry aloud you who did not travail with child. For the spiritual children of the desolate one will be more than the children of the married wife, says the Lord.

Study and Reflect

Scripture References to add depth to your study: Galatians 4:27, 1 Samuel 2:5, Luke 1:7-25

Word Study: Look up and define the word Barren and add it to your journal notes.

*The heart
My Prayer for you...*

Heavenly Father,

Thank you for your love and your faithfulness to meet us right where we are, barren, broken, and needing mending. I ask you to fill each heart with the abundant love that flows from your own and meet each need in your abundant sufficiency. Draw each woman into the fold of your embrace and reveal the promises you have laid out to meet her every need. Establish your living Word as the truth which will release her from a place of barrenness to become fruitful and blessed. Thank you that in Christ all our answers are yes and amen when we seek your will. We are so thankful for your intimate care and consistent reminders that your heart is for us and your plan for us is good.

In the precious name of Jesus,

Amen.
