

Journey to the Cross at Easter

Over the next 4 -5 weeks spend time reading through the accounts of Jesus' Ministry through the gospels. Take time to make notes as you Journey to the Cross, looking for its shadow in the tree of relentless grace as you go.

- ♥ As you study each of the gospels, write about the story or stories which have made the deepest impact on your life.
 - Consider the different aspects of His Public Ministry, His Prayer Life, His Teachings, the Healings, and His Relationships.
 - ❖ What can we learn from the Word and then apply it to our lives?
- ♥ Take a few days each week, (perhaps your weekend mornings where you may not have to rush to prepare) to read through each of the Gospel accounts of his last week here on earth.
Consider what lessons are beckoning to us through:
 - His entry into Jerusalem
 - The Last Supper
 - The Garden Prayer
 - The Crucifixion
 - The Disciple's actions
 - The Resurrection
 - The Women at the Tomb
 - The Walk to Emmaus
 - The Restoration of the Disciples Faith
 - The Ascension

Journey to the Cross through Matthew.

- ♥ Which story stood out to you most and why?
- ♥ What does this gospel tell us about His last week on earth?
- ♥ What are the reactions of the disciples, the people, and the leaders?
- ♥ The week before Jesus' death and resurrection is often called Holy Week. What stands out to you as you read about Him during this time in this gospel?
- ♥ What strikes your heart when you read about the Last Supper?
- ♥ What can we learn about the power of prayer through the Garden Experience?
- ♥ Whose faith do you identify with in the gospel accounts: Peter, the Women, Simon of Cyrene, the Pharisees, Pilate and Herod?
- ♥ When you read the Crucifixion Account, what stands out?
- ♥ How does the Resurrection Retelling excite your heart?
- ♥ Reflect on the restoration of the disciples, the walk to Emmaus, and/or the Ascension in this gospel passage. Where is the promise of Relentless Grace seen most prominently?
