

THOUGHTS, SCRIPTURES AND ENCOURAGEMENT TO FIND

MORE OF GOD IN 2018

DAWN BOYER

Sometimes I make it harder than I need to when it comes to hearing straight from God. Usually He provides clarity in the simplest and most convenient ways.

All we have to do is listen.

Is there a word or words that have been consistently a part of your prayer time or your quiet time as you are seeking the Lord? If you think about it, there is most likely one or two that are repeatedly before your heart or your eyes lately. I have learned to pay attention to those words.

Write down the word or words that have been present in your prayers and your quiet time.

Deep calls unto deep at the noise of your waterfalls; all your breakers and your waves have gone over me."- Psalm 42:7

Often the Lord will bring a passage of Scripture to mind as I am waiting for His leading at the beginning of each year. The more I meditate on the power of His Word in this context, the more I see the direction He is asking me to go. There are times when I feel like running from those leadings, but in His mercy I find myself coming right back to where we started. Grace leads us down every road that goes straight to God, friend. We can trust that He is taking us somewhere good.

What are the scripture or scriptures that He has shown you as you seek him for 2018?

"I wait for the LORD, my whole being waits, and in His Word I put my hope... my soul does wait for the Lord."- Psalm 130:5

And sometimes it takes writing out a prayer straight from the heart to find the word that will be the catalyst for the coming days. Because that is what I think these words we look for are meant to be, an invitation for more of God in all that we are and all that we do and all that we will become. You were made for more, friend. You were made for good things, for God-things. Are you ready to step into a #yearofmore?

More of God. More of Grace. More of Mercy. More of Forgiveness. More of Hope. More of Peace. More of Jesus.

What are the prayers you are praying for the upcoming year?

"Look to the LORD and His strength; seek His face always..." 1 Chronicles 16:11

Each year we start again, begin at the beginning. We find ourselves stepping right into a covenant of grace. His mercy is plentiful. It is complete. It is enough.
And so are you.

Write out those dreams and goals and hopes for the coming year here. Give them all to God in faith.

Let Him be the more you seek after.

Let God be the more you require.

Let God be the more that completes you.

Because he is more than enough.

But He gives greater grace. - James 4:6

Journal any thoughts, prayers, scriptures or goals in your heart for 2018.

Let's make this year a #yearofmore together.
